THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

JESUS said, “None of those who cry out, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of God but only the one who does the will of My Father in heaven.” If we believe in God, we must do what God asks; we must keep His law.

Jesus also said, “Live on in My love. You will live in My love if you keep My commandments, even as I have kept My Father’s commandments, and live in His love.”

The Ten Commandments are:

- 1. I, the Lord, am your God. You shall not have other gods besides Me.
- 2. You shall not take the name of the Lord, your God, in vain.
- 3. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day.
- 4. Honor your father and your mother.
- 5. You shall not kill.
- 6. You shall not commit adultery.
- 7. You shall not steal.
- 8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
- 9. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife.
- 10. You shall not covet anything that belongs to your neighbor.

SEVENTH COMMANDMENT

You shall not steal.

THE seventh commandment tells us to be fair, to give everyone what is his by right.

We must not steal or keep what belongs to others.

“Don’t take that orange, Eddie! That’s stealing!”

Jesus said that if God takes care of the birds and flowers, He will take care of us, too. We do not have to steal.

THE TENTH COMMANDMENT

You shall not covet anything that belongs to your neighbor.

THE tenth commandment tells us that we should not want anything that belongs to our neighbor. We are envious when we wish we had what other people have, instead of their having it.

Be satisfied with what you have, and do not want what does not belong to you.

Jesus said to the rich young man,
“Sell what you have and give the money to the poor.”
